

Gary and Carol Vincent Background Info

Gary and Carol Vincent are lifelong professionals in the music business.

Gary is a record producer, musician, engineer, and song writer. His songs have been recorded by, Mickey Gilley, John Anderson, The Crickets, Gary Morris, Tompall Glaser, Chris LeDoux, Leon Redbone, and many others. He was recently nominated for a Grammy for his co-production of a song on Elvin Bishop's record "The Blues Rolls On". Gary is currently the President of Ground Zero Blues Club Music, a co-venture film company with Morgan Freeman. He is also the owner of The Clarksdale Sound Stage, a unique recording studio and soundstage located in Clarksdale MS.

Carol Vincent has been involved in international song catalog administration for over twenty-five years, having managed and provided services for catalogs which included titles by stars such as Christina Aguilera, Kelly Clarkson, The Byrds, REO Speedwagon, Jerry Reed, Jimmy Buffett, Garth Brooks, Tim McGraw, George Strait, Merle Haggard, Delbert McClinton, just to mention a few.

They now reside in Clarksdale MS.

